> THE DEATH OF COL. BAKER. The President was greatly afflicted by the death of Col. Baker. He seemed, indeed, to feel the loss as if of a brother, and paced the floor of his room through the night in the greatest grief. Mrs. Liucolu is not receiving visitors this morning from the same cause. It was the desire of the President and Mrs. Linceln that the body of Col. Baker should be taken to the White House and placed in the East Roem, but that course was not practicadence of Maj. J. W. Webb in this city.
